2016 IBCLC Community Care Award

(Please include all necessary information in this form in English. Fields marked with a red asterisk (*) are required.)

IBLCE®, or the International Board of Lactation Consultant Examiners®, is the independent international certification body conferring the International Board Certified Lactation Consultant® (IBCLC®) credential.

ILCA®, or the International Lactation Consultant Association®, is the independent professional association for health care professionals who care for breastfeeding families.

Community-Based Criteria:

- Have one or more dedicated lactation consultant support positions with IBCLC as the required credential and a dedicated lactation program available at least 2-5 days a week.
- Provide a description of how the agency/program/clinic/office promotes, protects and supports breastfeeding
- Provide documentation which includes a description of a project started in the last two years that promotes, protects and supports breastfeeding and/or the IBCLC certification. (January 2014 - January 2016)

	If so, how often?
,	Baby-Friendly® Hospital Initiative (BFHI*)
	*BFHI: In various parts of the world 'BFHI' is known as Baby Friendly Health Initiative (in Australia/New Zealand) or & 'BFI' Baby Friendly Initiative (in the UK). Both represent Baby Friendly in a Hospital and/or a Community Health Facility.
	The International Baby-Friendly Hospital Initiative (BFHI) remains the most prestigious recognition that a hospital/community can attain, leading to dramatic improvements in successful breastfeeding outcomes.
	If your agency is not designated as Baby-Friendly, we strongly encourage you to implement the evidence-based "I Steps to Successful Breastfeeding" for a hospital or "The Seven Point Plan for Sustaining Breastfeeding in the Com and begin the process toward Baby-Friendly recognition at www.unicef.org/nutrition/index 24806.html.
	Is your agency designated as Baby-Friendly?* No
	 Yes Clear Selection
	If "Yes", when did your agency obtain the designation? (MM/DD/YYYY)
	Description of your agency's last project for Baby-Friendly. (Must be between 2 - 200 words)
